UNITED WAY'S LOCAL IMPACT

 Youth Opportunity
Helping young people realize their full potential.

We aim to support at-risk youth through early intervention, mentorship, and workforce opportunities while increasing access and awareness of youth programs through stronger community collaboration.

 Lifelong Literacy
Improving literacy among individuals from cradle to career.

We aim to promote lifelong learning through early readiness, literacy, and family engagement while strengthening support with volunteers and partners.

To Learn More about our local impact visit unitedwayvicksburg.org

 Financial Security
Creating a stronger financial future for everyone.

We aim to build financial security through literacy, coaching, resource access, and workforce support while reducing unbanked households and employment barriers.

 Community Resiliency
Addressing urgent needs today for a better tomorrow.

We aim to focus on expanding access to resources, services, and transportation while fostering mental health and well-being. We also strengthen community support, volunteer capacity, and local coordination networks.
